Arrive in Bangkok in the am. Afternoon free to rest after your flight. Dinner included in the evening at local restaurant.

Day 3 - 19 March 2027 (B)

Enter a realm of enchantment at Siam Fantasy, your gateway to the wonders of Siam.

Journey through time, where the splendor and grandeur of a bygone era unfolds before you. Immerse yourself in the heart and soul of this ancient land, captivated by its vibrant art, rich culture, and timeless traditions. Unveil the captivating legends, beliefs, and faith that have shaped the Siamese people for centuries.

Witness the wisdom and way of life passed down through generations, forging the nation Siam is today. This is Siam Fantasy – a marvel of the Kingdom of Siam.

Day 4 - 20 March 2027 (B)

Breakfast at hotel. This morning, we set off early to visit two of the top attractions of Thailand. And especially Bangkok. Our morning starts with a trip to the floating markets of the Damoen Saduak to see a traditional way of life for Thai locals. We travel there by long tail speedboat.

Have you ever watched 'Bridge Over the River Kwai'? The Bridge over the River Kwai is still standing and is a functioning railway bridge and tourist attraction in Kanchanaburi, Thailand. While two central spans were rebuilt after the war, many of the original components remain, allowing people to walk across it and even take a tourist train over the structure. This afternoon we learn of its use during WW2 but also enjoy the scenery outside the city of Bangkok into a more rural Thailand.

Day 5 - 21 March 2027 (B,L,D)

Breakfast at hotel. Depart the hotel early this morning for your short flight (2.5 hours) to Singapore to join your Royal Caribbean cruise. Your 5 nights itinerary is on Navigator of the Seas. Whilst Navigator is one of the older Voyager class ships, it offers excellent value for money and an opportunity to chill for a while, yet visit 3 amazing Asian ports. See below ports of call.

01	Singapore, Singapore
02	Penang, Malaysia
03	Langkawi, Malaysia
04	Phuket, Thailand
05	Cruising
06	Singapore, Singapore

Drinks packages may be purchased prior to travel. All meals included. All staterooms are Balcony. If you wish to upgrade to a suite, please contact our office for pricing. You are welcome to book your own excursions off the cruise ship or chill and enjoy the climate. Tips on cruise included.

Day 10 - 26 March 2027 (B)

Breakfast on board. Disembark in Singapore. Drop your luggage at the hotel for the next 3 nights, then we leave for a half day city tour of Singapore. Retrace the colonial history of Singapore on a jam-packed half-day tour. Highlighting the influence of Sir Stamford Raffles, the 4.5-hour afternoon tour takes in Singapore's elegant Raffles Hotel and Raffles Landing Site. You'll indulge in an afternoon tea buffet at the Raffles Hotel's renowned Tiffin Room or enjoy afternoon tea and cake at a traditional Chinese bakery. You'll then take a cruise along the Singapore River to Clarke Quay and make a visit to a pewter factory. Overnight at Hotel.

The river cruise by bumboat, the traditional vessels that ferried cargo up and down the river in times gone by, is another highlight of your Raffles Hotel Singapore tour. Today your bumboat will steer you along the historic Singapore River, past colonial buildings, Chinese shop houses and the modern skyscrapers of Singapore's business district. The cruise ends at Clarke Quay, a riverside festival village. You'll visit a pewter gallery to discover the history of pewter and its role in the development of Singapore as a trading port and witness a demo. Overnight at Hotel.

Day 11 - 27 March 2027 (B)

Breakfast at hotel. Have you ever joined one of our Battlefield Tours? Today is your chance to commemorate those who have fallen. Singapore was a major British military base and was also referred to as "Gibraltar of the East". Find out how the defence strategy failed, and recount the days of the Japanese Occupation of Singapore.

You will commence the experience at the Kranji War Memorial which honours fallen Commonwealth war veterans who died in battle during World War II. After which, you will proceed to Changi area to visit Changi Prison Wall, Changi Chapel temporary exhibit (actual chapel is undergoing renovation) and Changi Beach Park. We will also drive past Selarang Barracks, Changi Air Base, Johor Battery. The tour lasts around 3.5 hours. Your Afternoon is free. Dinner at leisure. Overnight at hotel
